GOURMET EVENTS IN THE STEINER'S WINE CELLAR

Dear guests & friends,

The Scottish writer Robert Louis Stevenson could not have been more correct when he described wine as bottled poetry. Sensual fragrances and inspiring flavours blend together in our Steiner's Wine Cellar to create unique experiences of pleasure. Let our wine events transport you into a world of exclusive vintages, renowned wineries and flavoursome wines. Accompanied by delicious, exclusive appetizers, that harmonise perfectly with our liquid treasures, connoisseurs and aficionados will get their money's worth. Take a taste journey to the world's best wine-growing regions, get inspired by interesting details and facts and experience a wine tasting in a class of its own.

EVENT °1

EVENT 04

GIRO D'ITALIA BIANCO E ROSSO 220 €

02.01. | 20.02.

5:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

The life of a wine lover is hardly long enough to fully discover the richness of the Italian wine world. It is too diverse in terms of grape varieties, soils and climatic conditions. From north to south, from the hills of Piedmont to the slopes of Mount Etna, some of the most well-known and finest wines in the world have their origin in Italy. And even in seemingly lesser-known regions, almost forgotten autochthonous grape varieties are coming back into the limelight.

EVENT 05

TOUR DE FRANCE BLANC 185 €

27.12. | 27.02.

5:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

Is France a white wine country or a red wine country? At first, most wine lovers will probably answer this question in favour of red wine. But if you ponder this question a little longer, you might not be so certain, because after all, there are fantastic white wines in Burgundy and Alsace, as well as on the Loire.

LINE UP:

- 2017 Chablis Grand Cru Les Preuses Jean-Paul & Benoît Droin
- 2015 Corton Charlemagne Grand Cru Louis Latour

EVENT °7

DRINK PINK 75 €

06.04. | 5:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

For a long time, rosé wines were not taken seriously by wine connoisseurs. They were considered second-rate wines with unpleasant residual sweetness for less discerning palates. But their image has changed: Worldwide consumption of rosé wines is rising rapidly – and so are their quality and prices.

LINE UP:

PURE WINE
ENJOYMENT IN THE STEINER'S
WINE CELLAR

Tuscany, the epitome of wine and „la dolce vita“

Tuscany features around 30% of hilly and mountainous terrain, which creates ideal conditions for grapevines. The soil compositions are difficult to pin down. Besides clay and marl, there are a number of other different varieties. The climate is moderately Mediterranean in summer, but temperatures are milder near the coast and in the mountains.

LINE UP:

BORDEAUX JOURNEY OF SUPERLATIVES 1,200 €

14.04. | 7:30 p.m. Aperitif and afterwards gala menu in the wine cellar

Bordeaux is probably the most famous wine-growing region in the world and is often divided into the Left Bank and the Right Bank. We combine both parts and start a journey across the great châteaux and appellations of the Bordelais. The degustation will include, among others, all Premier Cru from the Médoc as well as big names from Saint-Émilion & Pomerol.

SENSUAL, INSPIRING,
